- 119/20. Matters Arising from the Last Meeting:
- i. Umbrellas – the committee was advised that the Umbrellas are due to be delivered this week. It was discussed that shops may need containers to hold the umbrellas. The sanitiser and free-standing dispensers had already been delivered.
Action: Cllr Williams offered to search for holders.
  - ii. CCBC Grant – It was reported that contact had now been made with CCBC regarding the TRI grant. CCBC were willing to accept an amended application provided that the money was spent by the end of March.
  - iii. Rainbow Benches – It was reported that the order for the benches was ready to be placed once the grant had been confirmed. The committee decided on vertical rainbow colours.
RESOLVED: To order Twelve (one for each play area) benches with vertical rainbow colours, immediately and to cost an extra-long bench (for outside Llys Clwyd) in a more ornate style in Deep Brunswick Green.
  - iv. Awnings – Prior to progressing this element of the project the committee felt it need to know how many premises wanted a retractable awning.
Action: Clerk to contact premises managers and owners to ascertain interest.
- 120/20. Any Other Business.
- i. It was reported that Rev. Rosie Dymond was extremely grateful for the grant, which allowed the project to be completed.
- 121/20. Date and Time of the Next Meeting. Thursday 21st 5.30 pm
